Jack's wants to come to Elba

by Linda Hodge, Editor

Elba City Council members voted Monday evening, March 11, to support continued talks with representatives of the Jack's fast food restaurant chain to work towards bringing the restaurant to Elba.

During a work session meeting Monday afternoon with Jack's officials, it was revealed that talks between Jack's and the City of Elba had reached a point where both parties are looking to finalize a 'project development agreement' in order to move forward with constructing a Jack's restaurant in Elba. The Jack's company has reportedly has a piece of land 'under contract' along Alabama Highway 203 [adjacent to the Elba Gulf Travel Center] for purchase.

The project development agreement, if agreed to by both parties, would include a tax sharing proposal between Elba and Jack's for up to 10 years or $500,000, whichever comes first. This tax sharing agreement would be on the city's 4% sales tax excluding the tax portion [.75 percent] designated for schools, which cannot be abated. The proposed share amount is a 70-30 split on 3.25%.

Jack's officials said they currently have 251 stores, and all are corporately-owned with no franchises.

The representatives speaking with Elba leaders on Monday said Jack's is looking to make a $2.5 million investment in Elba, expecting it to be a long-term investment for the Jack's company. They said Jack's has not closed an operational restaurant in over 22 years.

The representatives said Jack's had been watching Elba as a potential location for one of its restaurants for the past 5-6 years, but increased traffic counts on the bypass had recently made the city more attractive to justify investing now.

Jack's plans to open 16 new restaurants in 2024. If the company reaches a project development agreement with Elba and it is approved by the city and by the Jack's corporate board, officials said construction could start late this fall with the new restaurant opening in Elba early 2025.

During the potential construction phase, the community could see Jack's bring 10-15 direct jobs and about 20 more indirect jobs to the area. Once the restaurant begins staffing, the community is looking at 40-50 jobs being created for the Jack's restaurant.

While no official agreement was ready Monday for the Elba City Council to consider, the city leaders wanted to show their support for the project and bringing Jack's to the citizens; therefore, they approved a motion to support moving forward with talks by authorizing the mayor to work with Jack's officials to get the project development agreement together and ready to be officially approved. The motion to support the project was made by council member Jane Brunson with a second from council member A R Williams. All council members and the mayor voted in favor of moving forward with the project.

This Elba Police vehicle was involved last Thursday evening, March 7, in a two-vehicle wreck on Alabama Hwy 203 just after 7 p.m. The other vehicle involved was a pickup truck.

Elba Police car involved in wreck

A two-vehicle motor vehicle accident last Thursday evening, March 7, sent an Elba Police officer to the hospital while another local man was arrested for driving under the influence.

The accident happened just after 7 p.m. last Thursday at the intersection of Alabama Hwy. 203 and Taylor Mill Road (in front of the Dollar General store) in Elba.

Reports were that the Elba Police vehicle and the pickup truck that collided were both traveling east on Hwy. 203 when another vehicle allegedly pulled out in front of the police car from Taylor Mill Road. Witnesses said the officer attempted to turn around at the intersection to pursue the vehicle that pulled out in front of the police unit; however, the officer attempted the 'turn around' from the outside (right) lane of the Hwy. 203 roadway.

In attempting to turn around, the police unit was struck on the driver's side by the pickup truck that was traveling in the inside (left) lane.

Upon arrival on scene, officers discovered the driver of the pickup truck was operating his vehicle under the influence of alcohol.

Brian Slenker

Brian Charles Slenker, age 52, was arrested by Alabama State Troopers for DUI (alcohol) at the scene. He was booked later that evening in the Coffee County Jail where he remained as of press time this week. His bond was set at $15,000.

The officer was transported from the scene of the accident to a local hospital for treatment. Earlier this week, Elba Interim Police Chief Shayne Arnett said the officer was doing well, mostly just sore from the accident.

The wreck was investigated by Troopers with the Alabama Law Enforcement Agency. While Slenker was arrested on the DUI charge following the accident, the cause of the accident was charged to the officer for attempting to make a turn from an improper lane.

The Elba Police vehicle was a newly acquired car for the department. It still had a dealership tag on it at the time of the accident.

Governor acknowledges passing of former Congressman Terry Everett

Governor Kay Ivey on Tuesday, March 12, offered the following statement upon receiving word of the passing of former Congressman Terry Everett:

"I am saddened to share word of the passing of longtime Alabama Congressman Terry Everett. Congressman Everett passed away peacefully in his sleep this morning at his home in Rehobeth. Terry tirelessly served the people of southeast Alabama and his native Wiregrass with distinction for eight terms in Congress. During his time on Capitol Hill, he was one of the strongest voices for Alabama's military bases, active duty personnel, and veterans. He was also a stalwart advocate for Alabama farmers and small businesses. Alabama greatly benefitted from his leadership and his devotion to public service. My thoughts and prayers go out to Terry's family, friends and former staff. Accordingly, I am directing the flags at the Alabama Capitol Complex and the flags in AL-02 immediately be lowered until the day of his interment."

Congressman Everett was elected to the 103rd and seven succeeding Congresses and retired in 2008. Prior to his service in Congress, he was a journalist, newspaper owner and publisher, and small businessman. He was also a veteran of the United States Air Force and a staunch supporter of southeast Alabama's military and farming communities.

Cuzin Lou Lou's
Tales from Yonder

Editor's Note: Cuzin Lou Lou's tales are to be enjoyed as a light-hearted form of Southern expression

Sister may never be seen in public with Papa again, and she is going to blame Cuzin Lou Lou for the entire thing! Turns out that Papa's most wanted [he thinks needed] fashion desire is Sister's biggest fashion nightmare.

A while back, Papa let it be known that he "needed" some suspenders. So, every time Lou Lou and Sister would go shopping, he would say, "look for me some suspenders while you are there."

The two would look... sort of...then return home empty-handed. It was true that they never found the desired suspenders for Papa, but mostly because they knew they were not looking in the right places.

This rocked on for a few months until last week when Papa was visiting Lou Lou at her office, and he remembered his need.

Papa is not a computer user, but he has decided over the years that Lou Lou can find almost anything he wants/needs on the internet. When he needs hard to find parts for some of his projects, he has Lou Lou do a search for them, and most times she is successful. He even tells his friends that Lou Lou can "find it" when they say they are looking for a particular hard-to-find item.

Papa had not mentioned the suspenders recently, but last week, while at Lou Lou's office, he instructed her to check online for them.

Bingo...he finally said the one thing that would lead to him getting his suspenders, and there would be no way for Sister to stop it!

Lou Lou typed suspenders in the 'ole search bar, and tons of options immediately came on screen!

Knowing the moment had arrived for Papa to finally get his suspenders, Lou Lou made sure to click on a good name brand...if he was going to have them to wear in the public, they at least needed to be good ones. Papa saw his options on screen and had Lou Lou order him a couple different color options.

The new suspenders arrived Monday of this week. Tuesday morning arrived and Papa put on his first pair!

It was Sister's fashion nightmare come to life! As expected, the suspenders 'jacked up' the back of Papa's pants. His intent is to keep his pants from sliding down constantly throughout the day...unfortunately...Papa wears his pants in the front below his waist... so, this is where Sister's nightmare comes in! Pants 'jacked up' in the back but riding low in the front!

When Lou Lou saw the result created by the suspenders, she chuckled! But, she completely lost it when he came in with this Alabama bucket hat on accompanying his suspenders! It was definitely a sight to see!

Lou Lou snapped a photo and sent it to Sister...her reaction was as expected, which leads Lou Lou to wonder if Sister will ever be seen in public again with Papa! Only time will tell!!

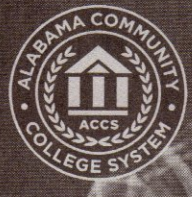

It's going to be hilarious around the Yonder Gang's house for a while...

Until next time...God Bless and Keep Smiling!

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Members of the Elba High School Class of 1966:

On behalf of the board officers and members of the Elba High School Alumni Association, I extend a heartfelt thank you to you all for your generous donation of $500 made this week to our association.

The Elba High School Alumni Association was formed to be an asset/resource for Elba City Schools. Each year, the association provides $3,000 in scholarship monies to graduating seniors [a $1,500 scholarship for a male graduate and a $1,500 scholarship for a female graduate]. To this date, over $24,000 has been provided in scholarship monies, and we plan to add to that total in May.

On top of that, the association's board works closely with the schools, and strives to assist with needs that may arise throughout each school year. We are only able to accomplish these things through support of alumni such as your class members. We rely on membership dues, an annual golf tournament fundraiser, and private donation, like yours, to allow us to help Elba City Schools.

Your donation is greatly appreciated by all. As always...It's Great to be an Elba Tiger!!

Sincerely,
Linda Hodge, president

What is a Power of Attorney

Choosing to give power of attorney (POA) to someone else is a very personal choice. It is certainly something that every family should consider and think about carefully.

What is a POA? A POA is a document to assign someone (known as an agent) to take care of decisions you may not be able to make at some point due to inability for some reason (like you are out of town), injury or illness. There are four types of POAs.

- 1) Limited – A limited power of attorney gives someone the ability to act in your stead for limited purposes only. This might be something like signing the deed to a property if you are out of town. A limited POA usually ends at a specific time noted in the document.
- 2) General – A general power of attorney is more comprehensive. It gives your agent any powers or rights you have yourself. It allows someone to pay your bills or sign documents for you. You don't have to be incapacitated to have a general POA. This type of POA ends upon death, if you become incapacitated, or if you rescind it.
- 3) Durable – A durable power of attorney can be general or limited. It remains in effect even after you become incapacitated. If you do not have a durable POA in effect and you do become incapacitated, no one else can represent you unless a court appoints them. A durable POA stays in effect until death. It can be rescinded if you are not incapacitated.
- 4) Springing – A springing power of attorney is like a durable POA. However, it only goes into effect if you are incapacitated. The standards for determining incapacity should be clearly laid out in the POA.

A durable or springing POA is what is meant when discussing having a medical power of attorney (MPOA). However, an MPOA does not replace the regular POA – they are separate legal documents that have different purposes.

What God Still Sees
A wave of fear cascaded across America on December 7, 1941 two months after the attack on Pearl Harbor, President Roosevelt signed Executive Order 9066, which authorized his Secretary of War to designate areas as "military zones". One result was the forcible relocation of more than 100,000 people of Japanese ancestry living on the West coast of the internees, 62 percent were American citizens. Those held captive were released after the war, but it took decades for America to admit the injustice. In 1988 President Reagan signed a reparations act that acknowledged that "race, prejudice, war hysteria, and a failure of political leadership" all played a role in what had been done. Jacob's family had gone willingly to Egypt to escape a famine, but 400 years later they had become the victims of racial prejudice. The Egyptians feared that so many Israelites were a threat, so they enslaved the Hebrews to keep them under control (Exodus 1). These two episodes of history separated by millennia witness to the evil results of ungodly fear, but GOD is watching. C.R.B

My first born daughter Melissa celebrated another birthday last week, and while she looked a little embarrassed, I enjoyed watching her players sing ‘Happy Birthday’ to her after softball practice and give her genuine hugs to help celebrate the special day. Melissa has devoted much of her adult life to teaching and coaching students at Elba High, and I think many of the players truly appreciate her devotion and love for them all. Happy Birthday, Melissa!

For what it is worth....

*** I told you so! The Elba Tigers finally put together seven solid innings and broke into the win column with an exciting 7-6 win over cross-county rival Zion Chapel. Elba jumped ahead early and could have easily throw in the towel and just accepted another loss after Zion Chapel scored three runs in the top of the seventh and had the bases loaded with no outs. However, the Tigers met the challenge and after a disappointing start to the season broke through and should now be ready to get on a roll. I know one win certainly doesn’t make a season a success, but the first win is always the hardest to get, and now that Elba has win #1 look for more to follow. Remember, I told you so.

*** The Elba Lady Tigers continued their marathon practice season last week after having even more games rained out. The Elba girls have been working hard for over a month only to have all their scheduled games cancelled due to rain or postponed due to the success of the basketball team, and with spring break just over a week away it looks like they could enter the planned break with only three games under their belts. Oh well, when the season finally gets going the players should be well rested and ready to go.

*** The Elba Tigers golf team is off to another successful season and in recent matches have been near the top of the standings after each and every match. Elba has one of the state’s top young golfers in Jay Wilson to lead the Tigers, and while the entire team would probably be on the junior varsity squad at most other schools, they are improving daily and there is no doubt that before long they will be ready to make noise in post-season tournaments and battle for another state title.

*** The high school baseball and softball seasons are in full swing for area teams and as the seasons progress it has become more and more obvious that the area teams are all headed for successful campaigns. On the baseball field, New Brockton has proven it can beat anybody on its schedule on any given day when it plays its best, while Zion Chapel feels the same way with a recent win over New Brockton to prove its point, Brantley appears to be in a slow building mode and is confident better days are ahead, and Kinston is still looking for a win, but showing lots of improvement and is determined to make some noise when area games begin. On the softball field, Zion Chapel remained undefeated last week with a big win over 2A power G.W. Long and appears to be for real, while Brantley dropped a couple of games to bigger schools as it plays stiff competition in its quest to defend its state title, Kinston more than held its own against a couple of bigger schools at a tournament in Dothan, and New Brockton is working hard to get everyone in the right place as it looks to add wins to its side of the ledger. This part of the state has become a hot bed for successful high school sports teams, and if the weatherman will come up with a better forecast we can all get outside, enjoy the weather and cheer for our favorite teams.

*** In closing.... Former Alabama football coach Nick Saban finally came out last week and admitted in an interview that the direction college football is headed had a lot to do with his sudden decision to hang it up. He stated that after the playoff loss to Michigan he had players throw their helmets and act unlike the standard he thought he had created at Bama, and when he sat down with the returning players after a couple of days to talk about their future with the Tide many of the players just wanted to find out if they were going to start, or needed to enter the transfer portal, while others wanted to know how much money they would make in the NIL. It was obvious that for many players it was no longer about the team but about themselves, and that was not what Saban wanted to hear after a long season of hard work. There is absolutely no doubt that major college football is now just a business for the colleges and the players, and it wouldn’t surprise me if even more veteran coaches just stepped aside, slowed down a little and enjoyed life away from the worries.

Elba Tigers bite Rebels 7-6

The Elba Tigers put an end to their early-season victory drought last Thursday night with an exciting 7-6 home field win over the Zion Chapel Rebels.

Zion Chapel wasted a base hit in the top of the first by Brady Flowers, while the Tigers got on the scoreboard and went ahead 1-0 when Ty Sieving delivered a two-out single and circled the bases on two Rebel errors.

Elba stranded two runners on base in the bottom of the second after a base hit by Kaleb Mitchell and a walk to Jaden Baker, and then watched as Zion Chapel pulled even at 1-1 in the third on an rbi single by Brodie Stinson.

The Tigers managed only two hits in their half of the inning, but plated five runs to grab a big 6-1 lead. Ty Sieving drew a walk to open the inning, moved to second when Brady Johnson was hit by a pitch and reached third on a single by Kaleb Mitchell as Elba loaded the bases with no outs. Sieving and Johnson both raced home on a Rebel error, while Easton McKelvy reached a bunt single and Mitchell and Collin Arnold both scored on another Rebel error, and McKelvy later scored on a wild pitch to put the Tigers up 6-1.

Zion Chapel plated two runs in the fourth thanks to two walks and a hit batter to close to within 6-3, but then left the bases loaded in the fifth to stall the Rebel rally.

Elba saw Brady Johnson

left on base in the fifth after a leadoff double and stranded two runners in the sixth as the Tigers remained on top 6-3.

Zion Chapel’s Brodie Stinson and Brady Flowers were both hit by a pitch in the top of the seventh, and while Stinson scored on an rbi single by Wes Braisted, Flowers and Braisted both scored on a two-run single by Austin Jordan to pull within 7-6 with no outs. Elba relief pitcher Jay Wilson retired the next three Rebels on two strikeouts and a pop up to the infield; however, as the Tigers escaped the seventh inning Rebel rally to claim the exciting 7-6 win.

Kaleb Mitchell had 2 hits and scored 1 run to lead Elba, while Ty Sieving and Brady Johnson both added 1 hit and scored 2 runs, and Easton McKelvy added 1 hit and scored 1 run. Powell Bane was the winning pitcher as he tossed four and one-third innings and allowed one earned run on three hits and three walks, while Jay Wilson picked up the save.

Wes Braisted had 2 hits, scored 1 run and had 1 rbi to lead Zion Chapel, while Austin Jordan added 1 hit, scored 1 run and had 2 rbi’s; Brodie Stinson added 1 hit, scored 1 run and had 1 rbi; and, Brady Flowers added 1 hit and scored 1 run. John Foster Hamm and Flowers combined to pitch six innings and allowed three earned runs on five hits and five walks, while striking out 10.

Elba golfers win tri-match over Opp and Brantley

The Elba Tigers hosted a tri-match last week with Opp and Brantley and defended their home course with an impressive first place finish.

Elba, led by Jay Wilson’s four-under par 68, fired a 306 to win the match, while Opp finished second with a 308 and was led by Will Boyd with a 75, and Brantley placed third with a 345 and was led by Cooper Layton with a 78. Samson’s Coy Ingram competed as an individual and fired a two-under par 70.

Other scores for Elba golfers included Trace Grantham 75, Alex Wisecup 80, Kade Harrison 83 and Powell Bane 83.

The Elba Tiger JV hosted Enterprise and saw the 7A Wildcats fire a 327 to win the dual match. Parker Gibbs and Lucas Potter both fired an 80 to lead Enterprise. Elba shot a 434 team total and was led by Levi Martin 96, Andrew Wisecup 108, Cole Shehee 113, Dylan Holley 117 and Cole Astemborski 133. Elba’s Payton Byrd competed as an individual and shot a 109.

Elba Tiger Powell Bane leaves the mound after a discussion with the pitcher. Bane took off the catcher’s equipment last week and pitched Elba to a big 7-6 win over Zion Chapel.

Elba Tigers outscored by Brantley Bulldogs 17-7

The Elba Tigers saw their season long victory drought continue last Tuesday night in Brantley with a 17-7 loss to the Bulldogs.

Brantley’s Tyson Grant had an rbi double in the bottom of the first inning to put the Bulldogs on top 1-0, while Kevin Freeman added an rbi single in the second to spark a 3-run uprising as the Bulldogs upped their lead to 4-0.

Elba’s Powell Bane and Cameron Gray both received a free pass in the top of the third on a walk and a hit batter, and later came around to score as the Tigers cut the deficit to 4-2. However, the Bulldogs combined a hit batter, three walks and three Elba errors to plate five runs in the bottom of the frame to stretch their lead to 9-2 after three innings.

Brantley’s lead grew to 10-2 in the fourth on a sacrifice fly off the bat of Branum, but Elba bounced back in the fifth and plated four runs to pull within 10-6. A leadoff single by Brady Johnson sparked the Tiger rally, as they took advantage of six walks to send four runners across the plate.

An rbi single by Jon Harper Kilcrease helped Brantley regain command in the bottom of the fifth, and the Bulldogs combined the hit with two hit batters, three walks and two Elba errors to take a 14-6 lead.

Brady Johnson scored on a wild pitch after reaching on a walk in the top of the sixth, but Brantley combined an rbi single by Hank Johnson with four walks and an Elba error to score three runs in the bottom of the inning to claim the 17-7 win.

Brady Johnson had 1 hit and scored 2 runs and Ty Sieving added 1 hit and scored 1 run to lead Elba at the plate, while Jaden Baker, Cameron Gray, Jay Wilson, Brady Johnson and Easton McKelvy combined to pitch five and one-third innings and allowed nine earned runs on six hits and 13 walks.

Jon Harper Kilcrease had 2 hits, scored 2 runs and had 3 rbi’s to lead Brantley, while Tyson Grant added 1 hit, scored 3 runs and had 2 rbi’s; Chaz Branum added 1 hit, scored 2 runs and had 2 rbi’s; and, Kevin Freeman added 1 hit, scored 1 run and had 4 rbi’s. Greyson Goodwin, Jon Harper Kilcrease, Chaz Branum and Reese Odom combined to pitch six innings and allowed seven earned runs on two hits and 12 walks, while striking out nine.
